

S-912™

Automatic Screen Printer

Model S-912M

Shown with optional micro-registration table and single-cycle foot switch

ADVANTAGES

- 30 year track record of performance and reliability
- Easy to operate—plug in, set up, and print
- All aluminum vacuum table construction
- Upfront, state-of-the-art controls
- Five-digit reset counter
- Adjustable print stroke length
- Variable cycle speeds
- Solid state, 1–15 second dwell timer
- Caster base for easy mobility
- Heavy-duty steel frame
- Quiet, brushless, maintenance-free vacuum motor

If your screen printing work calls for a small-format printer but you can't do without the automatic operation and precision of a larger machine, then the S-912M™ from American is the perfect choice.

Manufactured by A.W.T. World Trade, the S-912M's elevated base is adjustable to accommodate substrates of various thicknesses and with the optional micro-registration table, its registration controls ensure precise repeatability to $\pm.001$ ". Made in America and designed for reliable, long-term performance, the S-912M is easy to operate and maintain.

When you're ready to equip your shop with a small-format automatic printer, choose the speed, precision, and durability of the S-912M from American & A.W.T. With its unique combination of features and versatility, the S-912M is easily the best screen printer in its class.

Manufactured by

American

Division of The A.W.T. World Trade Group

4321 N. Knox Avenue • Chicago, IL 60641 USA

773.777.7100 • Fax: 773.777.0909

sales@awtworldtrade.com • www.awt-gpi.com